The products described above ("Products"), remain the property of MARINI until full payment of their price by the customer.

Supply of the Products will also be regulated by the MARINI general conditions of sale detailed below. MARINI will not be bound by any general contractual conditions envisaged by the customer, not even when the same are mentioned or reproduced on the orders or any other documents sent by the customer to MARINI.

DATE, PLACE, SIGNATURE FOR ACCEPTANCE

For express acceptance of the following clauses of the general conditions of sale: Article 1 (Products - Changes); Paragraph 3.2 (Terms of delivery); Paragraphs 4.3 and 4.4 (Late payment - Prohibition to act); Article 5 (Warranty); Paragraphs 6.2 and 6.3 (Resolution of disputes).

DATE, PLACE, SIGNATURE FOR ACCEPTANCE

Please sign twice and return to MARINI S.p.A.

General Conditions of Sale

1. Products - Changes

1.1 All information and data made available by MARINI relevant to Product characteristics, including where indicated on internet websites, brochures, catalogues, price lists, offers, estimates, drawings, projects or similar documents issued by MARINI are indicative and, therefore, will be binding for MARINI only to the extent that they are referred to and/or indicated on the Sales Agreement (as subsequently defined in paragraph 2.2). acceptance.

1.2 Prior to executing the Sales Agreement, the customer is responsible for ensuring that the Products are suitable for the specific purpose and/or use for which it intends to purchase them and, furthermore, ensuring that the Products comply with the applicable regulations in the place in which the customer intends to import and/or use them.

1.3 MARINI, also subsequent to the execution of the Sales Agreement, can make changes to the Products it deems necessary or appropriate, provided that such changes do not alter the essential features of the Products.

2. Estimates - Execution of the Sales Agreement

2.1 Quotes and estimates issued by MARINI, under whatever name, are not considered contractual offers.

2.2 All sales agreements between MARINI and the customer ("Sales Agreement") shall be executed by:

- MARINI sending the offer and written acceptance of the same by the customer, without any amendments; or
- the sending of the order by the customer and written acceptance of the same by MARINI.

2.3 For the purposes of paragraph 2.2, letter a), the following facts or acts will imply written acceptance of the MARINI offer by the customer:

- payment by the customer to MARINI of the full or partial amount of the price for the supply and acceptance of such payment by MARINI;
- the sending of a purchase order by the customer to MARINI, in this case, any indications made on the purchase order by the customer that are not in line with those made on the offer by MARINI will be binding for MARINI only where the latter specifically accepts the indications in writing.

2.4 For the purposes of paragraph 2.2, letter b) above, should the acceptance by MARINI of the customer's order contain conditions that differ from the order made by the customer, the Sales Agreement shall be considered as executed pursuant to the conditions indicated in the order confirmation issued by MARINI, unless the customer notifies in writing its refusal of the amendments indicated in MARINI's order confirmation within 5 (five) days from receipt of the same.

2.5 The supplies will include only that which is indicated on the Agreement.

3. Terms of delivery

3.1 MARINI shall deliver the Products, including by way of partial deliveries, within the terms envisaged by the Sales Agreement.

3.2 In any case, the terms of agreement are understood as being neither fundamental nor mandatory. Without prejudice to wilful misconduct or gross negligence, MARINI will not be liable to pay any indemnification or compensation to customers for any direct or indirect damages caused due to the delay in delivery.

4. Prices - Payment - Late payment

4.1 Products will be supplied at the prices mutually agreed to by the Parties within the Sales Agreement.

4.2 Payment for the Products must be made by the customer in compliance with the terms indicated within the Sales Agreement. Payments are considered made by the customer only when the relevant amount has been credited to MARINI's current account.

4.3 Should the customer be late making the payment, MARINI reserves the right: a) to the payment of statutory interests on arrears, in compliance with the applicable law; b) to suspend the fulfilment of all obligations arising from the Sales Agreement or any other obligation undertaken towards the customer, subject to prior written notification, until the full payment of the amounts due and relevant overdue interest.

4.4 The customer will not be able to claim default by MARINI, nor can it start any legal actions against the same until it has fully paid all amounts due to MARINI pursuant to paragraphs 4.2 and 4.3.

5. Warranty

5.1 MARINI guarantees to the customer that the Products will comply with the Sales Agreement and be free from manufacturing defects. This warranty is valid for 12 (twelve) months from the date on which the Products were delivered to the customer.

5.2 The following are excluded from any type of warranty:

- defects or malfunctions of the Products resulting from installation or assembly carried out (i) in breach of instructions provided by MARINI or (ii) by unskilled or unqualified personnel;
- defects or malfunctions resulting from use of the Products (i) outside of their operation limits or in any case (ii) in breach of instructions provided by MARINI;
- defects or malfunctioning of the Products resulting from failure, insufficient or incorrect maintenance.

5.3 The customer will be required to examine the Products as soon as possible and, under penalty of forfeiture of this warranty, to report in writing to MARINI, by fax or email:

- obvious non-conformities and defects of the Products: no later than 8 (eight) days from delivery of the Products;
- hidden non-conformities or defects of the Products: no later than 8 (eight) days from the discovery and, in any case, within the warranty period.

5.4 MARINI reserves the right to inspect the Products considered non-conforming or defective.

5.5 Should non-conformity of defects be ascertained the customer, at the discretion of MARINI, will be only entitled to the repair or replacement of the non-conforming or defective products.

5.6 The rights described in paragraph 5.5 are the only warranty rights granted to the customer. This warranty replaces and excludes any other warranty, express or implied, as required by law or in any other document. Any other liability of MARINI in relation to the supply of non-conforming or defective Products is excluded - such as, by way of example but not limited to, liability for direct, indirect or consequential damages, loss of profit, etc. - without prejudice to the case of wilful misconduct or gross negligence by MARINI.

6. Applicable law - Resolution of disputes

6.1 The general conditions of sale and all of the Sales Agreements between MARINI and the customer will be regulated by Italian Law, without prejudice to the possible application of the 1980 Vienna Convention on the international sale of goods.

6.2 Any dispute relevant to these general conditions of sale and/or Sales Agreements arising on the basis of the same will be decided in compliance with the following provisions:

- if the customer has its registered office in the European Union or in Norway, Iceland, Switzerland or San Marino, the dispute will be subject exclusively to Italian law and the Court of Ravenna (Italy) will have exclusive jurisdiction;
- in all other cases, the dispute will be decided exclusively and definitively by arbitration, by a single arbitrator, in compliance with the Rules of Procedure of the Milan Court of Arbitration.

The arbitration will be held and the judgement declared in ) Milan (Italy). The language for the arbitration will be English.

6.3 However, only MARINI has the unconditional right to act, as plaintiff, under the jurisdiction of the customer before the competent court.
